

Media Release Form for the Wrap It Up Video Project

This academic year, Burnett Middle School students of D. J. Ashford's classes will have the opportunity to participate in Wrap It Up, a collection of youth created interviews with the Japantown Mural Project artists. The youth videos will be shared via the QR codes on the Japantown murals in San Jose. The videos will be shared through the Japantown Mural Project Website and will be hosted on the Next Vista for Learning website, an education non-profit, at <http://nextvista.org/projects/wrapitup/>. A "Street Screening" walking tour of the project will be held in the spring of 2013.

Each Wrap It Up mural artist video will include the video interview of the artist and images of the mural art the artist created. The purpose of this public art project is to bring to life student and artist reflections on local community as well as to highlight the creative process and ideas contributing to the creation of the 60 mural panels of the Japantown Mural Project.

The Wrap It Up videos may be included in:

- the Wrap It Up project lesson plan website: <http://wrapitupmurals.weebly.com/>
- the free online youth education video library of NextVista for Learning: <http://nextvista.org/projects/wrapitup/>
- The Japantown Mural Project Website: <http://www.rasteroids.com/japantown-mural-project/>

I hereby give my permission, as a Mural Artist of the Japantown Mural Project, for the use and reproduction of my video interview for the non-commercial purposes of the Wrap It Up project. I understand that the use of the video will be used for only the educational and non-commercial purposes listed above.

Note: There is no time-limit on the validity of this release. The Mural Artist agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Corinne O. Takara (arts educator creator of Wrap It Up), Next Vista for Learning (non profit educational organization hosting youth videos), Rasteroids Design (creators of the Japantown Mural Project), and The Silicon Valley Community Foundation (funder of the Wrap It Up project), from and against any and all claims, actions, costs, judgments, or damages of any type relating to the production or non-commercial distribution of the artwork in the Wrap It Up project.

I have retained a copy of this release form.
