

Media Release Form for the Wrap It Up Video Project

This academic year, Burnett Middle School students of D. J. Ashford's classes will have the opportunity to participate in Wrap It Up, a collection of youth created interviews with the Japantown Mural Project artists. The youth videos will be shared via the QR codes on the Japantown murals in San Jose. The videos will be hosted on Next Vista for Learning, an education non-profit, at <http://nextvista.org/projects/wrapitup/>

The videos and artwork created may include student created art, written reflections, video images and audio recordings. The purpose of this public art project is to bring to life student reflections on local community as well as to highlight the creative process and ideas contributing to the creation of the 60 mural panels of the Japantown Mural Project.

Student artwork may be included in:

- the Wrap It Up project lesson plan website: <http://wrapitupmurals.weebly.com/>
- the free online education video library of NextVista for Learning: <http://nextvista.org/projects/wrapitup/>
- The Japantown Mural Project Website: <http://www.rasteroids.com/japantown-mural-project/>

I hereby give my permission, as the parent/legal guardian of the participating student named below, for the use and reproduction of the artwork of participating student for the non-commercial purposes of the Wrap It Up project. I understand that the use of the participant's artwork will be primarily for the purposes listed above.

Note: There is no time-limit on the validity of this release. Student and Student's Parent/Legal Guardian agree to indemnify and hold harmless Corinne O. Takara (arts educator creator of Wrap It Up), Next Vista for Learning (non profit educational organization hosting youth videos), and Rasteroids Design (creators of the Japantown Mural Project) from and against any and all claims, actions, costs, judgments, or damages of any type relating to the production or distribution of the artwork in the Wrap It Up project.

I have retained a copy of this release form.
